

Melbourne University Japanese Club – Semester 1 Calendar

Event	What is it?	When and Where is it?	Cost	Contact Person
KAIWA	KAIWA is a great opportunity for native Japanese speakers to meet learners of the Japanese language (and vice-versa). You don't have to speak Japanese to be able to attend. Love for the people and culture is all that is necessary! Japanese snacks are provided and there will be many "Special KAIWA" this year! (see below) Open to all members and non-members of MUJC.	1-2pm Every Tuesday (Weeks 1-12) @ Alice Hoy-242	Free	Izumi Ishikawa president@mujc.org.au
Week 2 Special KAIWA – Language/Cultural Exchange Picnic	21 students are visiting for 3 weeks from Kobe University in Japan and they are busting to meet other people living/studying/working in Melbourne! Whether you want to practise your Japanese, teach the visitors Aussie slang, or just meet a bunch of interesting people, please come along. BYO Lunch.	12-2.15pm Tuesday, 10 March @ South Lawn	Free	Asher Preston global.heart.tours@gmail.com
Week 3 Special KAIWA – Manga Drawing Workshop	Want to try some manga drawing? This workshop will be running simultaneously with the normal KAIWA in Week 3. So feel free to join the artistic members of the club whilst enjoying the Japanese snacks provided! Open to all members and non-members of MUJC.	1-2pm Tuesday, 17 March @ Alice Hoy-242	Free	Izumi Ishikawa president@mujc.org.au
Week 7 Special KAIWA – Annual General Meeting	Time to select new committee members! Come and be part of the MUJC behind-the-scene crew and have your voice heard. We have positions for all year levels, so don't be shy!	1-2pm Tuesday, 21 April @ Alice Hoy-242	Free	Izumi Ishikawa president@mujc.org.au
Japanese Study Session	Studying Japanese? The study session is an informal gathering for those studying Japanese to get together and help each other with problems in relations to their language studies. No uni	12-1pm, every Wednesday (Weeks 3 -12) @ Arts ED Centre-403	Free	Izumi Ishikawa president@mujc.org.au tutorial pressure, so just drop by and do some practice with your fellow classmates!

J-Drama	Come and relax in the weekly screening of “Proposal Daisuke” while enjoying free Japanese snacks provided by the club! Open to all members and non-members of MUJC.	1-2pm Every Thursday (Weeks 2-12) @ Asia Centre-119	Free	Izumi Ishikawa president@mujc.org.au
Club Dinner & Drinks	A night out to an izakaya and drinks afterwards. We promise a fun and exciting night, so come along and indulge with your fellow MUJC buddies! (This is a members-only event, and invitation will be sent out closer to date. RSVP are essential and spaces are limited.)	Thursday, 9 April @ Chuji Izakaya & Robot (TBC)	Split-the-bill	Izumi Ishikawa president@mujc.org.au
Budget Travel Information Sessions	An informative session for you to gain some travel hints and tips to make the best of travel in Japan! Also a chance to speak to some of the club’s seasoned Japan-travellers. Open to all members and non-members of MUJC.	Details TBC	Free	Izumi Ishikawa president@mujc.org.au
Japanese Language Proficiency Test (JLPT) Preparation Course	Studying for JLPT? MUJC is currently planning on running 2 JLPT Preparation Courses (12 lessons) in Levels 2 and 3. Courses are run in an informal atmosphere by experienced members who know all about the little tricks and hints for the JLPT! (This is a members-only event and we need a minimum of 5 to run.) Please register your interest with Stanley in person or via email THIS WEEK! (i.e. Name, JLPT Level and Email)	5.15-7.15pm Every Wednesday (Weeks 2-11 with 2 extra sessions throughout the semester) @ Asia Centre-G01	$180 (All materials provided)	Stanley Wang treasurer@mujc.org.au
Calligraphy and Origami Course	Hongo-sensei kindly teaches us how to gracefully master the art of calligraphy and origami. A small fee is required for calligraphy classes to cover the cost of materials. (This is a members-only event and we need a minimum of 7 to run.)	Details TBC	Est. $5 per session	Izumi Ishikawa president@mujc.org.au

For any enquiries, please try and contact the contact person listed above via email or via enquiries@mujc.org.au.